Dedication

We, the seniors, wish to dedicate this yearbook to the youth of East Greenville, and the surrounding districts, who are offering their services in each branch of the United States' fighting forces, in the Korean struggle for a free world.

The ideals, for which they may yet be called upon to sacrifice their lives, are upheld, and precious to all of us who love democracy.

It is our hope that the confusion in which our world finds itself today, may, with the help of God, be resolved, and that once more we may build our futures without fear, and in a new atmosphere of the brotherhood of man.

OLD MAIN

ALMA MATER

Dear comrades true and loyal,
Join in a song of cheer
To thee, dear Alma Mater,
As now we gather here.
Our hearts are filled with praises
Of one we fondly love
And whose memory lingers ever
No matter where we rove.

We love our dear old High School
And schoolmates everyone.
To Gold and Black we're faithful
Till life's work here is done,
And through our every effort
We'll strive with all our might
To uphold our dear old High School
In its stand for truth and right.

Though far away we wander
Still true we'll ever be
To thee dear Alma Mater
And lessons learned from thee.
And through thy sons and daughters
Thy fame afar shall spread
Till honored be thy noble name
Through lives that they have led.

CLASS SONG

(To the tune of "This Is Worth Fighting For")

As seniors, now we are leaving
All the joys we knew for a while,
And within us lies a hollow feeling
Making it hard to smile.
But smile we do and with purpose,
For it's only the end of a day
And tomorrow morning we'll be leaving
Each in our own way.
We won't forget our high school.
We won't forget our friends.
We won't forget our teachers.
That's what we say as our school career ends.
But Lord grant us mercy and keep us
Remember as others forget.
Then we'll live our lives enriched forever,
No! we will not be "dead."

Board of School Directors

TO THE CLASS OF 1951:

You are members of the largest graduating class in the history of our school. This increasing number reflects the growth of our entire student body. Of course where growth exists there is development. The growth of our school makes possible an expanding curriculum with facilities and a professional staff to fulfill the aims of education for pupils of varying interests and abilities in a democratic society. Many prominent educators believe that about 500 pupils or more are essential for a good high school.

We believe you are fortunate to have been a part of this organization. We are proud of your accomplishments and look toward your future success with pleasure.

BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS,
H. M. Bartholomew, Secretary

The Supervising Principal

STANLEY M. KURTZ

TO THE CLASS OF 1951:

You are the golden anniversary class, the 50th class of East Greenville High School. You will note on the school seal that this school was recognized as a high school in 1901. After the 50th commencement exercises on May 31, 1951, East Greenville High School diplomas will have been awarded to 1526 young men and women.

I hope that being members of this select group will be of special significance to you throughout your entire lives. No doubt you realize the responsibilities this implies. Primarily you must endeavor to live your lives among your fellow men so that you will be worthy of being the golden anniversary class. May each one of you accept this challenge with pride and determination!

High School Principal

MARK H. LAYSER

The school of today is vitally concerned with the type of social being a youth becomes, for it must be kept in mind that public education is supported primarily to enable boys and girls to grow into socially competent, adult citizens. Social competence means much more than learning certain bodies of knowledge and mastering certain skills. It means the ability to live happy, healthy lives; to do well some part of the world's work. It means desirable attitudes, ideals, intelligent self-control, fair play, good sportsmanship, respect for law and order and consideration for the rights of others. When evaluating our educational product, we must consider that; what a student is and does is as important as what he knows.

Mark H. Layser.

PAUL BENNER

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We, the Class of 1951, have come to the realization that these years at E. G. H. S., short as they have been, were the happiest years we have spent. Our teachers and principals have tried to make us sound men and women, mentally, morally and physically. We respectfully express our appreciation, and hope that their influence may be reflected in the lives of each one of us, whatever our destiny may be.

There are times when we can truthfully say we are not eagerly awaiting our graduation. The world we face is in a confused state, and the present events foretell an even more ominous turn in the world situation. However, we will shoulder our responsibilities and make any sacrifices asked of us. With the help of God we shall carry our share of the burden so that the heroic sacrifices of the past will not have been in vain, and so that we can lift our country to an even greater height.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the senior class of '51, began our high school career way back in 1947. Our four years at East Greenville High School proved to be the most interesting and most enjoyable of our entire school career.

FRESHMAN YEAR

As shy, young freshmen, our class consisted of 104 students, the majority of which were boys. Due to the fact that our class was the largest in the school, and the rooms would not accommodate all of us, we were divided into two sections. We chose as our class officers: President, Raymond Stoneback; Vice President, Patricia Layser; Secretary, Jane Straube; and Treasurer, Carl Trollinger . . . selected blue and white as our class colors . . . sent for our class emblems . . . witnessed many new romances . . . were proud of our fellow classmates who made the varsity teams. By the time we became acquainted with our fellow classmates and the school, summer vacation time had rolled around.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Returning to school as sophomores we . . . elected Paul Bardman, President; Elmer Reiter, Vice President; Gordon Oplinger, Secretary, and Ronald Leister, Treasurer . . . selected and sent for our class hats, after much confusion . . . congratulated Paul Bardman on being elected Vice President of the Student Council . . . were proud of our classmates who contributed to the winning of the three championships . . . found that Elaine, Gladys, Dotty, Pat and many others were interested in Pennsburg fellows . . . all agreed that Mike and Jeanette made a cute couple. This ended our sophomore year.

JUNIOR YEAR

Agreeing that this was one of our most important years, we selected Paul Benner, President; Elmer Reiter, Vice President; Betty Reiman, Secretary-Treasurer . . . sent for our class rings and were overjoyed by their early arrival . . . held a successful junior prom entitled "Winter Wonderland," with Woody Leigh and his orchestra supplying the music . . . presented the play "Spooks," the first mystery to be presented by any class of E. G. H. S. in quite some time . . . new romances: Pat and Gene, Pat and Paul . . . enjoyed mimicking the seniors in the junior assembly.

SENIOR YEAR

As seniors we were ready and willing to undertake the tasks set before us . . . again chose Paul Benner, President; Elmer Reiter, Vice President; Betty Reiman, Secretary, and Ronald Leister, Treasurer . . . presented as our class play, "It Might Happen to You," which proved to be a howling success . . . suffered through Mr. Schlegel's English classes . . . enjoyed discussions in P. A. D. . . . sent for our pennants . . . had our pictures taken . . . selected our class motto and flower . . . more championships . . . proudly discovered that Mike Duka had earned honorable mention on the National High School All American Football Team . . . planned for our senior prom, which was held in May . . . selected Bobby Freed and his orchestra for the occasion . . . worked on our yearbook . . . listened to Virginia and Ruth talk about Basil and Alex . . . looked forward to the senior assembly . . . and finally graduation.

"Spooks"

Robert J. Sherman

In the early part of March you may have seen around town some advertising of a play called "SPOOKS," to be given by the junior class on March 24 and 25.

The plot concerned four heirs who were about to inherit a fortune from their deceased uncle, providing they remained in the mansion for three nights. If the four of them didn't remain in the mansion for the required time, the entire fortune would be given to his secretary and his colored servant. In the course of the three nights a chandelier fell, two people were murdered, and many other mysterious happenings took place. Finally the villains were apprehended and the heirs were awarded their inheritance. If you didn't see it, you missed a grand mystery and an enjoyable evening of entertainment.

"It Might Happen to You"

By Robert Ray

The senior class play, "It Might Happen to You," was presented on December 7 and 8, 1950. The farce comedy in three acts depicted a day in the life of Vic Johnson, a henpecked husband, who had trouble making ends meet. Overnight he became a hero and received a $5,000 reward for bringing a gang of kidnappers to justice.

The audience enjoyed the hilarious play and rewarded the cast by a grand applause.

FOOTBALL SEASON

The Greenie football team of 1950 achieved an outstanding record at East Greenville High School. This team trudged through an eight-game season without a defeat; also annexing the Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley League championship for the second consecutive year. This team scored 299 points against its opponents' 50, which illustrates its defensive punch as well as its offensive power. The team showed wonderful teamwork and cooperation among themselves and with their coaches. There will be ten members of the 1950 squad graduating in the spring of 1951. A large gap will have to be filled with the coming of a new season.

A new record was set at East Greenville when Mike Duka scored 151 points during the 1950 season. The old record was 136 points scored by Sam Roeder in 1934.

The scores of the schedule were as follows:

East Greenville	13	Quakertown	7
East Greenville	25	Spring City	12
East Greenville	31	Collegeville	0
East Greenville	73	Schwenksville	12
East Greenville	43	North Coventry	0

With the December practices, our varsity basketball team started on their exciting way to victory. The Champions were chosen from a group of 40 who showed up for the first practice.

The team not only won the Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley League championship, but headed for the district honors; however, Darby copped the game which ended the district try. The team deserves double credit for its spendid showing.

Our Most Recent Champions

On March 19, immediately after school, approximately fifty-four fellows rushed up to the baseball field for the first call to practice. It certainly was good to hear again the crack of the bats and the snappy out-field talk.

The cream of this crop was chosen to be the team, which batted up the amazing Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley League championship record of twelve wins and no defeats.

The scores were as follows:

HOCKEY SEASON

Although the Greenie's hockey team did not have as successful a season as the previous year, their fighting spirit and determination led them to third place in the Perkiomen-Schuylkill Valley League. The team, under the capable direction of Miss M. J. Platt, scored 15 points. Jeannette Heimbach being high scorer, with four points to her credit.

Probably the most exciting game was with Boyertown, ending in a 1-0 win for East Greenville. Seniors leaving the team are: Patricia Layser (Captain), Patricia Schiery, Peggy Shewell, Jeannette Heimbach, Joan Kline, Delores Fritz, and the manager, Betty Rothenberger.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Greenie Sextet's season ended more successfully this season than the previous year. The Maids finished the season with three victories out of seven games.

The season started with a 41-40 loss to Pennsburg, which probably was the most exciting game of the season. The girls showed great determination and spirit in this game.

The team was again capably coached by Mrs. Moser, who had as her assistant Miss M. Jane Platt. Grace Long was high scorer for the season, with 85 points to her credit. Marilyn Freed and Pat Layser followed her with 53 and 50 points respectively.

Seniors leaving the team are Co-Captains Patricia Layser and Fay Schantz; also Betty Rothenberger, Betty Reiman, Pat Scheiry, and Manager Jeannette Moll.

Scores were as follows:

The following is their perfect record:

THE FIRST AID PROGRAM

At the beginning of the school year Mr. Roth was called to represent our school at a meeting in Norristown, where civil defense and the need for a first aid course in the schools was discussed.

The faculty then decided that a first aid course, under the supervision of Mr. Roth, should be established at E. G. H. S. The following faculty members acted as leaders, having taken the course themselves: Mrs. Yoder, Miss Pennebacker, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Moser, Miss Platt and Mrs. Fairlamb; Mr. Roth, Mr. Guldin, Mr. Pritchard, Mr. Schlegel, Mr. Neiman, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Robert Ensminger. Wayne Kreider, Gerald Hummel and Richard Ensminger received their standard first aid certificates also and, along with the faculty, helped in demonstrating the various first aid techniques before the high school group. Each Tuesday during the activities period, all of grades ten, eleven and twelve met in the gym with bandages, splints and blankets. Each person became quite proficient by the end of the session, in administering first aid to his victim.

Since first aid is such a vital aspect of civil defense, East Greenville High School is especially proud to be the first in the county in sponsoring such a project.

THE FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The purposes of this organization are as follows: Promoting a growing appreciation of the joys of homemaking, emphasizing the importance of worthy home membership; encouraging democracy in home and community life, working for a good family life for all.

The motto of The Future Homemakers which is, "Toward New Horizons," expresses the main purpose of the organization: Learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow.

This year the department is proud of the fact that the fudge made by the girls won first prize in a television fudge-making contest. The prize was a sixty-four piece set of lovely dishes.

Arlene Gehman won a table light, furnished by the P. P. & L., for the kitchen plan. She presented the lamp to the cottage.
